NOMINEE'S NAME

THE XAVIER SCHOOL GOLDEN JUBILEE TRIBUTE

FOR THE EXEMPLARY XAVERIANS OF THE FIRST FIFTY YEARS

In recognition of highly commendable alumni of the past fifty years who have excelled in their respective fields; and moreover, who have used their talents and resources in the service of society, thus embodying to an outstanding degree the Xavier Ideal of being “men for others”.

Objectives

1. To inspire the Community with shining examples of alumni lives grounded on the Xavier Ideal, witnessing through service and leadership
2. To focus public attention on the Xaverian as an active member of society and meaningful contributor to social development

Awards Criteria

The alumnus who has lived his life grounded on the 3 cornerstones of the Xavier Ideal, manifested through the 6 C's that make up the ideal Xaverian. He must manifest at least one of these 3 attributes to such an outstanding extent to have had a meaningful impact on the community or society; and he should not be deficient in the other two conditions.

1. “Men fully alive” – imbued with the truly human and universal virtues of love, mutual respect and harmony with all He is ruled by a well-educated conscience.

He strives to keep close contact with God and to seek God's Will in his life. (CONSCIENCE)

He appreciates his God-given gifts and; at the same time, he is conscious of his weaknesses, even as he tries to improve himself in every way that he can. (CHARACTER)

2. “Endowed with a passion for justice” – has devoted his life to or is actively involved in humanitarian work or other selfless endeavors for the service of society

He interacts with people from different levels of society and works with them in a peaceful and effective manner. (COMMUNITY)

He strives to be a neighbor, especially to those most needy and marginalized in imitation of Christ's compassionate option for the poor and tries to live a life of SIMPLICITY to be in solidarity with the poor. Most of all, he works for justice-i.e., working towards eliminating unjust structures. (COMPASSION)

3. “and the skills for development” – has fully actualized his potentials and continues to excel in his field

He has a track record of excellence in whatever healthy field of human endeavor. (COMPETENCE)

He embraces his unique identity and has exploited the various cultural influences in his life to expand his horizons, including his Asian soul. (CULTURE)

Eligibility

- The nominee must be an alumnus of Xavier School, either a full graduate or must have completed either his primary or secondary course as attested by the Registrar's Office.
- He may be alive or deceased, living in the Philippines or abroad and may or may not be a Filipino citizen
- Any alumnus previously honored by the school may still qualify.

Selection Process

1. Nominations may be made by any member of the Xavier Community (alumni, parents, faculty and staff) or by friends or civic leaders through any member of the Community.
2. The nominations must be in the prescribed form and including all required documents and attachments.
3. A screening committee will vet all nominations to verify eligibility and documentary requirements and to make the preliminary validation of the proofs presented.
4. The committee will submit the qualified nominations to the Board of Judges for final selection.
5. The decision of the Board is final.

Nomination Rules

1. The official nomination form should be filled out in English (available from the Alumni Relations Office or downloadable from the website).
2. Should be accompanied by two 2x2 colored photos (current) of the nominee with his name printed at the back.
3. A one-page Executive Summary may be attached, outlining important facts and achievements that support the criteria.
4. Any accompanying statements or endorsement letters from recognized leaders in the community may be attached if they add more weight to the proofs presented.
5. Completed forms should be submitted to Xavier School Alumni Relations Office c/o Fr. Ismael Zuloaga, S.J.
